

Rhea Hubbard is the Grants Team Lead with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), Office of Federal Financial Management (OFFM). She contributes to government-wide initiatives to improve Federal financial assistance policies, processes, and systems. In this role, she engages with relevant Government and non-Federal stakeholders on key issues to foster more efficient and effective Federal management. She is the OMB staff lead for cross-agency efforts to promote Results-Oriented Accountability for grants, an effort begun as a Cross-Agency Priority Goal under the previous President's Management Agenda. She started her decade long Federal career in grants management operations and later transitioned into policy. She is passionate about solving long-standing grants management challenges to ensure successful results for the American taxpayer while finding opportunities to alleviate recipient burden. Rhea has a Master of Public Policy Degree from American University and a Bachelor in Arts Degree in Psychology from the University of Missouri – Columbia.
