

Krissi Cydrus is the Director of Financial Services at the Indiana Department of Education. She began as a summer intern and was hired on in 2006 as a part of the business process team. After assisting with the transition to a State accounting system, Ms. Cydrus became a Title I Account Manager which started her involvement in Federal programs. She then became a Controller overseeing expenditures of more than half of the State of Indiana budget and 21st Century funding until beginning her current position in 2018. Ms. Cydrus oversees an external audit team, a contracts team, and a business process team. She uses her experience through the years to specialize in processing time and effort calculations and indirect cost calculations for the Department as well as providing guidance to those as needed.
